

Support literacy & education

by putting textbooks here

Running a Better World Textbook Drive helps put literacy within reach for people around the world. What does that mean? Well... collected books are sold with a portion of each sale funding literacy grants and book donations. Grants support the needs of libraries and non-profits serving literacy and education in their communities. And with every book we sell, we donate one, Book for Book™.

textbook bin locations

